SCC Title IV Code of Conduct

The U.S. Department of Education requires all schools that participate in an FSA loan program to publish and enforce a Title IV Code of Conduct. SCC's Title IV Code of Conduct is as follows:

- SCC does not participate in any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender
- SCC does not have a preferred lender arrangement with any outside lenders, nor will SCC steer students or parents to any particular lender offering private loans. If a student seeks alternative, or private, student loans, the student must research lenders and make the necessary arrangements for those loans
- SCC does not delay private loan certification based on lender choice, and
- SCC does not offer private loan funds to students in exchange for providing certain concessions to lenders, such as promises of a certain number of loans, a specified loan volume, or a preferred lender arrangement.

The SCC Financial Aid Office and other staff members with responsibilities pertinent to education loans may not accept compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or contract to provide services to or on behalf of a lender, or for any service on an advisory board, commission or group established by
